JOY NAMED PRESIDENT.

At a meeting of the leading motion picture theater proprietors and managers at the residence of A. C. Joy, with Mr. Joy as temporary chairman and William R. Mack as temporary secretary, a permanent organization was effected. After several interesting and instructive addresses, the following officers were unanimously elected: A. C. Joy, president; Fulton Brylawski, secretary, and A. Brylawski, treasurer. A committee on rules and by-laws, composed of Mesers. Miller, Notes, Brylawski, Mark, and Herbst, was appointed.

The meeting was one of enthusiasm, both in the interests of the exhibitor and the patrons of this popular form of amusement, and can only tend to a better and more satisfactory conduct of these theaters.
